

Watt a way to start season

BILLY STARK has his Queen's Park players preparing for a week's pre-season camp in Germany from July 16-23.

The Spiders will play two games against local teams before meeting Third Division outfit Wattenscheid – a match set up by the supporters of both clubs.

Wattenscheid fans read in a German magazine about the Queen's history, and promptly arranged a visit to Hampden early last season.

A friendship was formed, and a return visit to Germany by Queen's fans has now paved the way for this official meeting of the clubs.

Wattenscheid were once in the Bundesliga, and their local Old Firm are Borussia Dortmund and Schalke, so they felt Queen's were kindred spirits.

■ Stark in trip to German clubs

At FC Schalke's Gelsenkirchen Stadium during the World Cup, the St Andrews Cross could be seen on the terraces – being waved by Wattenscheid fans.

Before the Germany trip, however, Stark has other camps to oversee – the Spiders summercamps for kids from four to 16.

Stark and his coaching staff will be holding the camps at Cartha Queen's Park on Haggs Road and at Lesser Hampden from July 10-14 and August 14-18. Info and bookings on 0141-632 1275 or online at www.queensparkfc.co.uk
